

Irish Centre for European Law

Invitation for Applications

Office of Treasurer

The Centre

The ICEL is a Centre of the School of Law of Trinity College Dublin, constituted as a company limited by guarantee and a registered educational charity, with an independent Board and Committees. The Board chairperson is the Centre's President, Hon Mr Justice Anthony M Collins (a serving member of the Irish Court of Appeal).

It was founded in 1988 by Senator Mary Robinson SC (later 7th President of Ireland, and now the Centre's Patron) as a membership-based association to further education in the law and research of the European Union and European human rights.

The Centre serves the legal professions, legal academics, law students, public institutions, the voluntary sector, businesses and the wider public.

The Centre organises conferences and seminars across the island of Ireland in various areas of EU law (in particular, environmental, public procurement, data protection, Brexit and competition law) and in human rights law. The Centre is also the Irish member of the European Law Association for Criminal Law and the Protection of the Financial Interests of the EU, which is run by the European Anti-Fraud Office (OLAF).

The Centre has annual revenues of approx €150k and 2 part-time members of staff (1 full-time equivalent) based in Trinity. The Centre has recently launched activities in Northern Ireland, and has additionally recruited a part-time Assistant Director for Northern Ireland based in Belfast.
